

MHS Grading Practice
Developed May 2018
(Revised 5/5/19)

Type of Assessment	Middle School	High School
Summative Assessment (Unit tests, research paper/essay, projects)	55% Expectations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● One or more projects per marking period ● A total of at least four summative assessments per marking period. ● Summer packets are worth one assessment. 	60% Expectations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● One or more projects per marking period ● A total of at least four summative assessments per marking period. ● Summer packets are worth one assessment
Formative Assessment (Quizzes, homework, classwork, participation) Note - homework cannot count toward its own grade and participation.	45% Expectations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● A total of at least 15 per marking period not including participation 	40% Expectations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● A total of at least 15 per marking period not including participation

Midterms and Finals for High School (Middle School Benchmark Assessments)

- HS only - 10% each with each marking period being 20%
- Seniors exempt from finals if student has earned an A average for the year up to that point
- All courses except Math and LAL: midterm lowest grade is a 60. Final exam is an earned grade.
- Minimum for math and LAL midterms (both will be Linkit Benchmarks) is a 74 for students who actively participate and attempt the assessments.
- Participation grade for Benchmarks will only be a part of Form A with 80% participation and 20% grade and entered as a summative assessment.
 - Midterm (Benchmarks)
 - Exceeding/Meeting A - 100
 - Bubble B - 91
 - Approaching and Partially Meeting C - 82
 - Not Meeting C - 74
 - No Participation F - 60
 - Summative assessment for middle school math and LAL
 - Final (Benchmarks)
 - Exceeding A: - 100
 - Meeting A: 93
 - Bubble B: 86
 - Approaching C: 79
 - Partially Meeting D+: 72
 - Not Meeting F - 64
 - No Participation - LinkIt Benchmark C Raw Score
 - Summative assessment for middle school math and LAL